JEFFERSON CITY

WELCOME TO THE HIGHWAYS OF MISSOURI

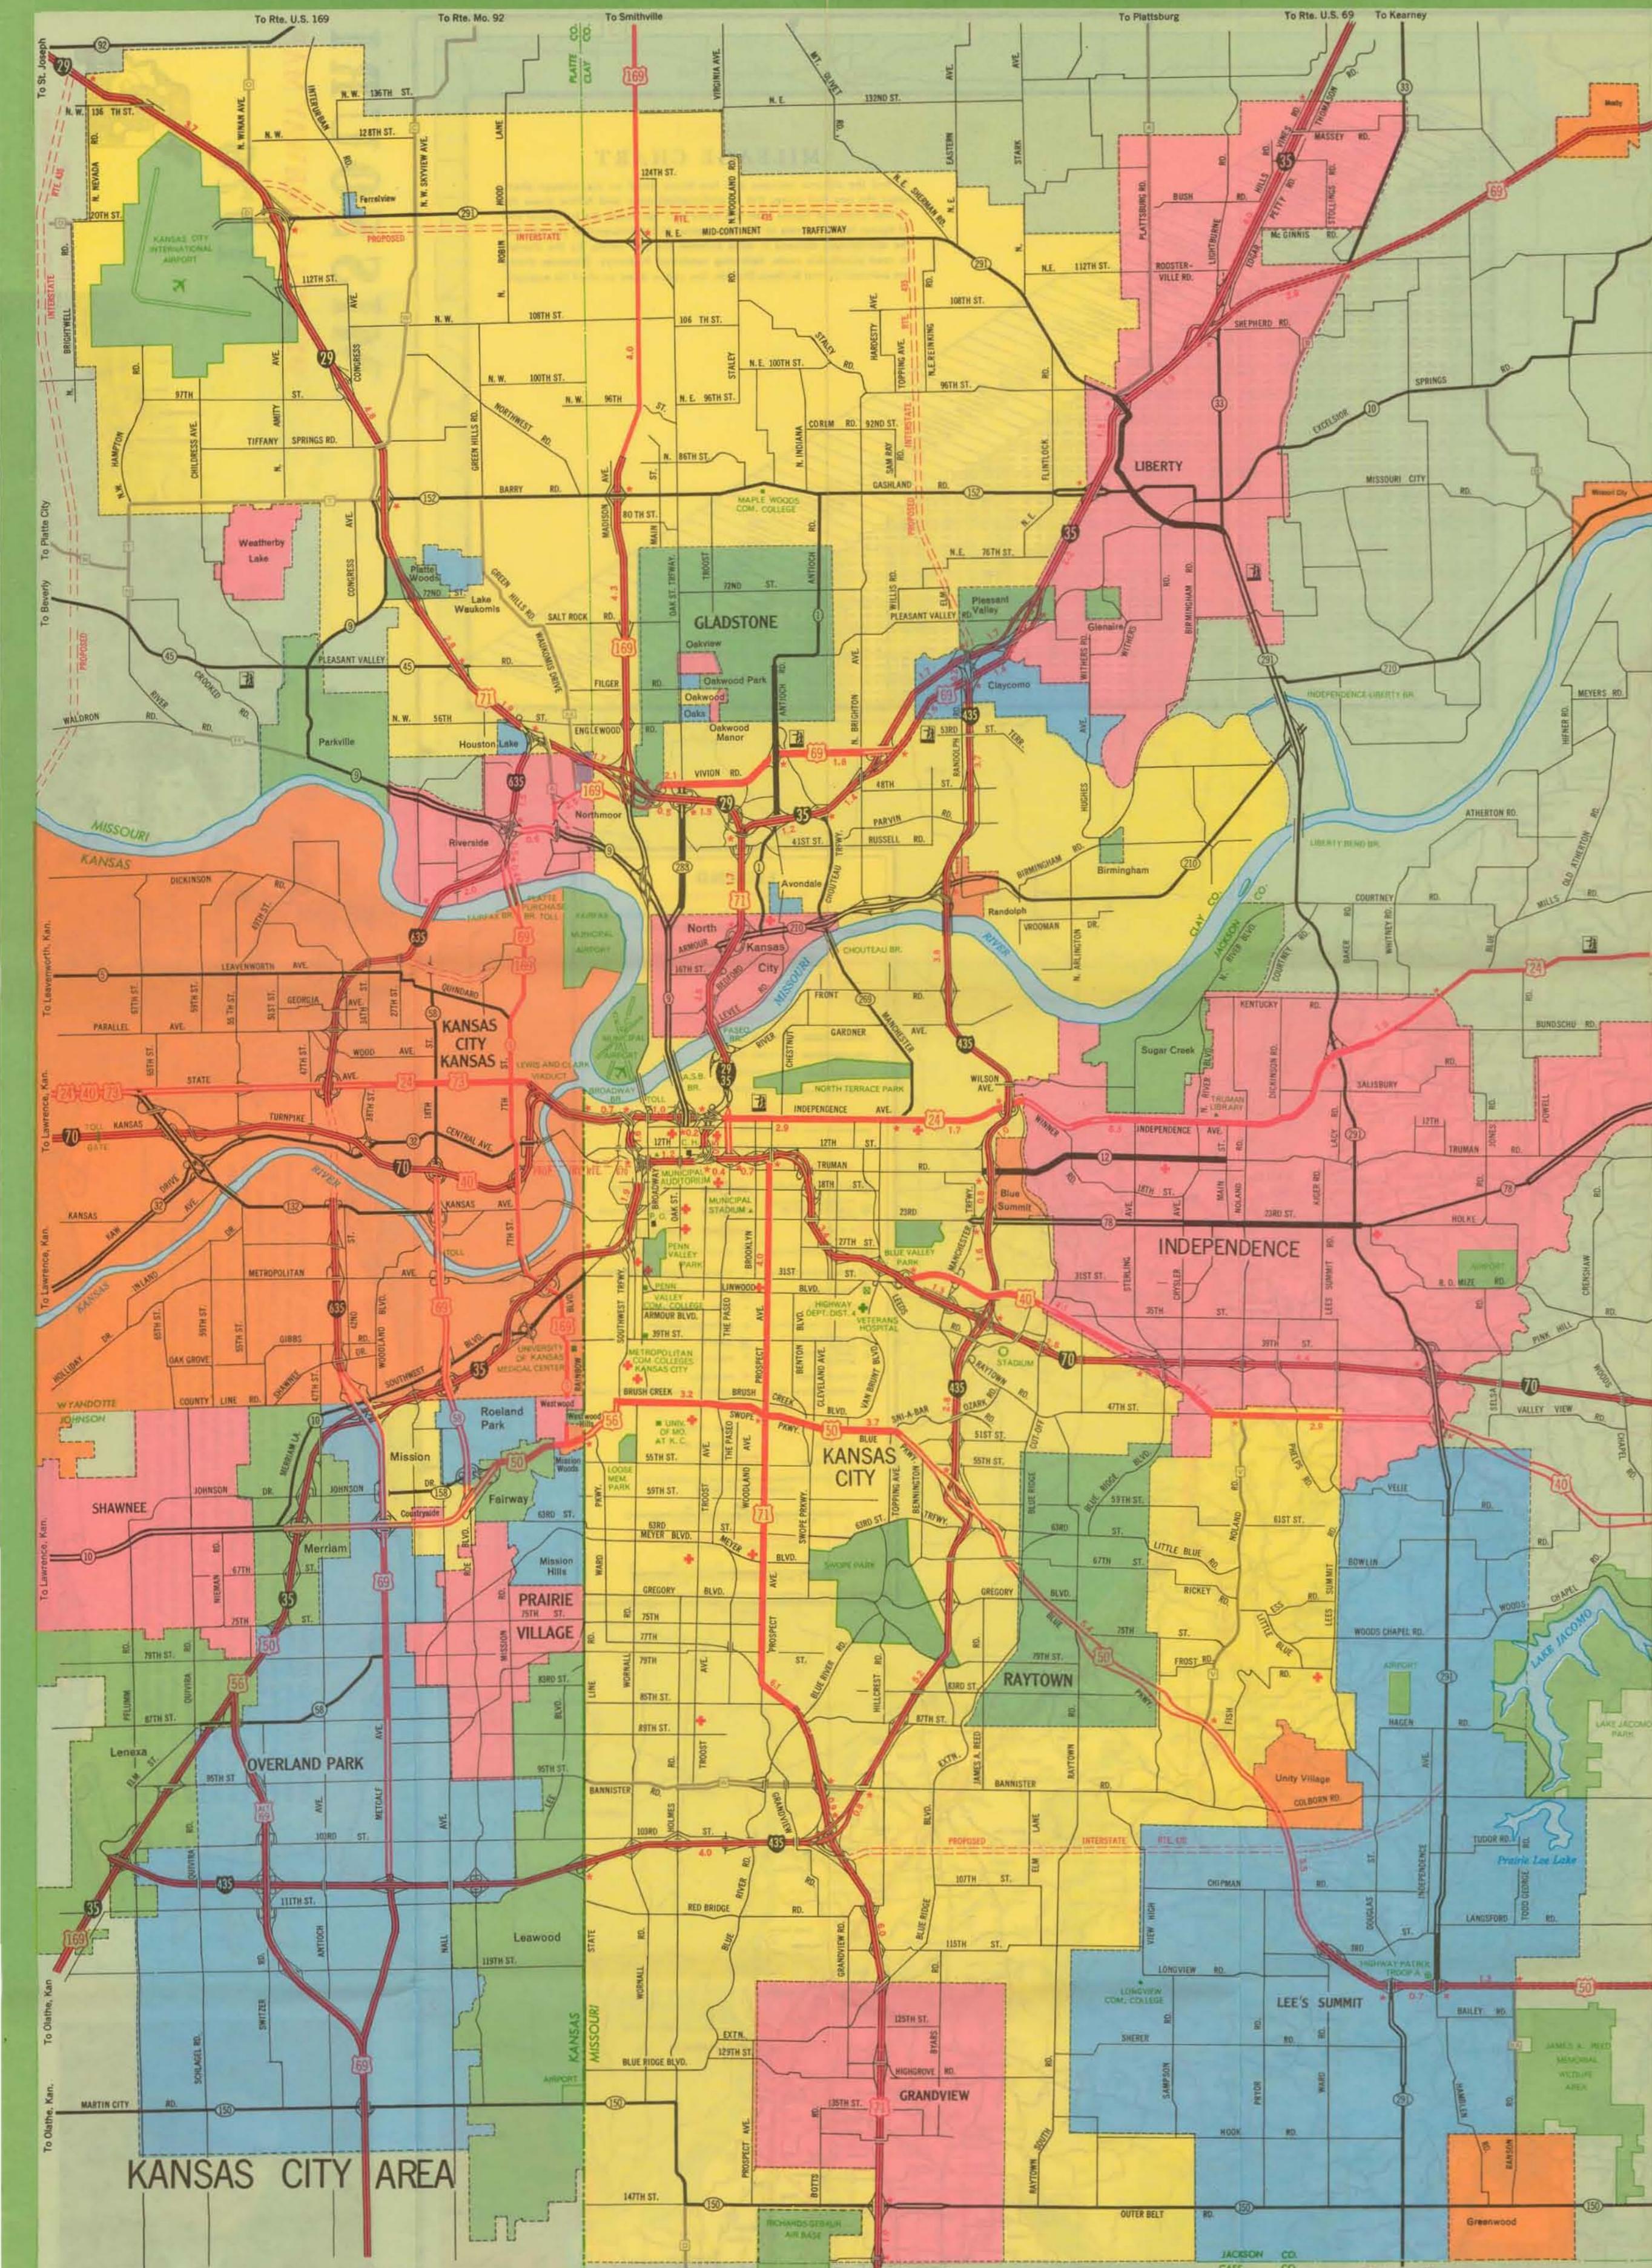

Welcome to the highways of Missouri. During this Bicentennial year we are especially pleased to have you travel in Missouri. Our state has much to offer and our highway system will get you where you want to go, whether it be to a museum in St. Louis or to view a restored building in St. Joseph - Missouri's highways will show you the

The Bicentennial era gives all of us an opportunity to pay tribute to our past, evaluate our present, and plan for our future. As Missourians, we wish to share our celebration of the nation's 200th birthday. Meaningful projects have been undertaken across the state, including the official state Bicentennial project illustrated on this map. The Jefferson Landing State Historic Site

Whether you are driving for business or pleasure, whether you are a visitor or a native Missourian, we hope you will find this map useful in exploring and enjoying Missouri's rich heritage.

Please drive safely, and may you have a comfortable and pleasant journey on Missouri's highways during this Bicentennial year, or any other.

Sincerely,
